PROGRAM NARRATIVE

PROGRAM NAME OLDER AMERICANS ACT TITLE III C-2 – HOME-DELIVERED NUTRITION

Program/Element/Component: 10.20

DESCRIPTION

Home-Delivered Nutrition provides nutritious meals, nutrition education, and nutrition risk screening to individuals 60 years of age or over who are homebound by reason of illness or disability, or who are otherwise isolated. Program goals are targeted to the reduction of social isolation and the promotion of better health through nutrition. Meals meet nutritional standards by incorporating the Dietary Guidelines for Americans and providing a minimum of one-third of the Recommended Dietary Allowance (RDA).

Most home-delivered meal programs provide their clients with a hot meal five days a week delivered by staff or volunteer drivers. In addition, nutrition education is provided and nutrition counseling may be available.

The program is funded by the federal Older Americans Act, the State General Fund, participant donations, as well as local funds. Services are provided through a network of 33 Area Agencies on Aging and their contracted service providers

BENEFITS

The provision of meals to homebound eligible individuals is a vital service which in many cases facilitates the individuals ability to remain independent and in their own home. This prevents premature institutionalization and its associated costs.

ELIGIBILITY

Individuals eligible for Title III C-2 nutrition services must be 60 years of age or older who are homebound by reason of illness, incapacity, disability, or are otherwise isolated. Spouses and caregivers of eligible participants, regardless of age, may receive meals if it is deemed beneficial to the participant. An individual with a disability who resides at home with an older individual may receive a meal if it is deemed in the best interest of the homebound senior.

The Older Americans Act emphasizes serving individuals in greatest economic or social need, seniors living in rural areas, and seniors who are low-income minorities.

BACKGROUND

Authorized under Title III C-2 of the Older Americans Act (OAA), this program, like Congregate Nutrition, has a 5% State matching requirement in Local Assistance. Actual State funds have grown through Budget Act augmentations, federal reduction back-fills, and special legislation, resulting in State match plus additional funds committed to the program. Because of the Senior Nutrition Maintenance and Home-Delivered Meals Act of 1984 (CH 616/84) which appropriated $5 million to the program, State funding is significantly higher than in Congregate Nutrition. The $5 million appropriated by CH 616/94 has been annualized in the Budget Act. Area Agencies on Aging also provide match plus additional funds committed to the program.

The OAA allows for the transfer of up to 30% of federal funds between Nutrition and Supportive Services (Title III B) and up to 40% within the two Nutrition programs (Congregate, Title III C-1 and Home-Delivered, Title III C-2).

The Nutrition Services Incentive Program (NSIP) is an allotment of funds provided by the Secretary of Agriculture to the AoA. The purpose of the funds is to provide incentives and to reward improved performance by states in the effective delivery of nutritious meals to older individuals. Funds received must be used to purchase food for use in the nutrition projects.
